Abstract

An XRPL native, music NFT platform designed to facilitate the exchange of all things music.

We propose a complete rethink of the entire music industry.

To achieve this, we're building a platform to reduce dependency on third parties, to decentralise musician financing, and to unlock the true value of the music asset class.

The primary benefit of this is the creation of a new era of music, where creativity and engagement measure success - rather than commercial success via formulas.

What is NFTempo?

NFTempo is a musical marketplace that thrives in a world without borders, uniting musicians, fans and collectors in a harmonious ecosystem where collaboration knows no limits or boundaries.

We offer the world a fresh approach to collecting, connecting, and sharing our love for life's most essential component: music.

Our Mission

Our mission is to create greater cohesion between musicians, fans and investors. To achieve this, we're building a frictionless music market, designed for a truly Web3 music experience.

We're providing musicians, fans and investors with a vast array of tools within a state of the art platform, to unlock music's full potential.

No one knows music quite like musicians and everyone who makes their success possible. That's why we're empowering everyone to challenge what's possible within a world of music without barriers.

The Platform

The NFTempo ecosystem will exist as two interconnected modules to service all things music.

We'll be sharing more very soon!

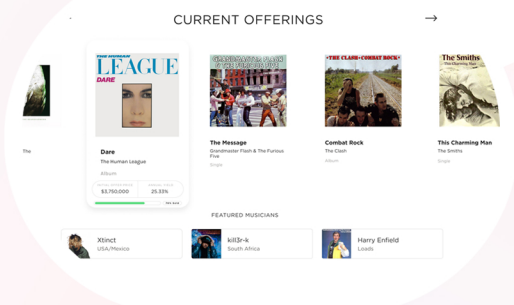

Music NFT Marketplace

The Music Marketplace allows musicians to create NFTs of their songs, albums, art, merchandise, and so much more. Fans will have the ability to support musicians along their journey to success with immutable proof on the blockchain, serving as a tangible and powerful measure of support.

The Music NFT marketplace empowers musicians to monetize their creations while giving back to their dedicated fans. Fans, in turn, have the freedom to resell these NFTs on the secondary market as they see fit. Music NFTs can encompass songs, music videos, and more. The stage is yours!
